

Focusing on fictionalised accounts of actual historical events, this series of ten stories for children does indeed feature bold, ground-breaking characters and the changes they inspired or experienced. Each story, written by a star-studded list of contributors, including well-known, award-winning and new voices in children's literature, celebrates strong female characters, with subjects ranging from the '43 Group to modern ghost stories.